

what's hot!

1 A New Leaf

Vine-inspired stems and leafy handles on Michael Aram's Botanical salad servers add a touch of the outdoors to the tabletop. The 12" fork and spoon are hand-cast in silver-plate bronze and retail for $55 per pair. Call 866-792-2726 for stores and information; michaelaram.com.

2 In the Cards

A2 Paperie's debut collection of stationery includes a choice of monogrammed and personalized note cards, plus an array of whimsical motifs. Letter-pressed with hand-painted edges, they come with tissue-lined envelopes. Prices start at $30 for ten; call 212-645-1988 to order.

3 Flower Delivery

Clovers, a hand-embroidered chain-stitched wool runner by New York-based textile designer Judy Ross, measures 72" long by 30" wide and costs $850; other sizes and designs are also offered. Call 212-842-1705; judyrosstextiles.com.

4 Bedtime Story

Kate Spade brings her signature colors to the boudoir with a new line of bedding, part of the designer's home collection. Further Lane, in pink and white, has delicate embroidery and hemstitched details (other patterns and colors are available). Prices range from $113 for a standard pillowcase to $625 for a king-size duvet cover. Call 212-274-1991; katespade.com.