1 IRON AGE

Casamidy's lighthearted new Almidi Arch table transmutes an iconic architectural detail into boldly enameled metal. Measuring 18" sq., it is also available in other colors and costs $625. For stores, visit casamidy.com.

2 FRESH AIR

Featuring petal-shaped blades made of woven banana leaves, the Castaway ceiling fan by Tommy Bahama Home ornaments a room like a tropical flower—and provides a refreshing breeze too. It has a 52" blade span and an antiqued-pewter housing and costs $1,100. Call 800-823-4964 or go to tommybahamafans.com.

3 IN STITCHES

Naturalistic motifs get stylized sizzle with Judy Ross's Spray (far left) and Cluster throw pillows, chain-stitched with pure New Zealand wool. A 18" sq. pillow is $190, while a 24" sq. size is $230; other colorways, including custom-made, are available. Call 212-842-1705 or visit judyrosstextiles.com.

4 PEN PALS

When it's time to give thanks, what could be a more charming means than letterpress stationery by Charles Fradin for Williams-Sonoma Home? With either nautical or garden motifs, a boxed set (shown) of two notepads and 12 note cards and envelopes costs $89. Additional items, such as gift tags, are available separately. For store locations, call 888-922-4108 or go to wshome.com.

5 GREAT CATCH

Stake a claim on that spot of sand with a limited-edition Bleu Poisson cotton-terry beach towel by D. Porthault. Emblazoned with a glamorous fantail goldfish and measuring 56.5" l. x 40" w., it costs $550. Available at the D. Porthault boutique at Bergdorf Goodman, 212-872-8787. For other stores, visit dporthault.com.
