

what's hot!

1 EARLY BLOOMER

Judy Ross Textiles' Cluster chain-stitched wool carpet brings a graphic floral kick to any room. It comes in four colorways (cream/blonde/gold is shown) as well as custom shades and costs $90 per square foot. Call 212-842-1705 or go to judyrosstextiles.com.

2 MATERIAL WORLD

Van Der Hurd's latest embroidered and hand-printed fabrics, from the Out of Print to Color collection, include, from left, Tulips 5, Flower Cut Out 9, and Hexagon With Trellis. Available in natural (shown) or cream linen, sheer cotton, or cotton cambric and in different colorways, they cost $120-$400 per yard. Call 212-213-6541 or visit vanderhurd.com.

3 BLUE CRUSH

Java dinnerware by Home, James! magnifies an Indonesian ikat design and dresses it in fresh blues. The seven-piece earthenware line includes a salad/dessert plate (shown), $29, and mugs and dinner plates, which cost $22 and $34 each, respectively. Call 877-329-8878 or go to homejameseasthampton.com.

4 FLOOR MODEL

From Nathan Turner's latest furniture collection for Elite Leather, the handmade Candemir pouf provides a cushy place to perch. It is available in more than 200 colorful leathers, including, from top, canary yellow, sherbet, and pear green; fabrics in 150 shades are offered too. The ottoman measures 12" h. x 26" dia., and prices start at $410 each. Visit eliteleather.com.

5 PRÊT À MANGER

The Optima Co.'s Blyton picnic tin comes with all the accoutrements for a two-person meal, including a handwoven-willow tray, insulated enamel flask, earthenware mugs and plates, stainless-steel flatware, salt and pepper shakers, and a cotton bag and napkins embroidered with the word PICNIC in red. The tin measures 14.5" l. x 11" w. x 7" d.; the set costs $160. Call 800-706-3981 or go to picnicfun.com.

