

NEW IN THE SHOWROOMS

Top Copper

New England Copper Works recently expanded their line of handmade onion lanterns, finials and birdbaths to include this simple yet stunning bar sink, which debuted at the Rhode Island Spring Flower Show in February. Smithfield, R.I., (401) 232-9899, necopperworks.com

By the Seashore

The Shell rug, part of Judy Ross's spring 2013 collection, exemplifies the beautifully bold prints and color choices for which the designer has become known. Order it in one of five colorways at the new Williams and Spade retail store. Sudbury, Mass., (978) 443-4427, williamsandspade.com

Inside Out

The Standard Arm Signature Sofa from George Smith may look like it belongs in a sitting room, but the plush piece is actually part of the company's new outdoor collection. Order it now from Furn & Co. and it will be installed on your patio by the time the weather warms up. Boston, (617) 342-1500, furnco.us

Sun Salutation

For her spring 2013 collection of pillow covers, Framingham, Massachusetts-based textile designer Priyanka Behl embellished classic linen with patterns and colors inspired by the Konark Sun Temple in Orissa, India. Find the collection at Barrows Custom Interiors. Newton, Mass., (617) 964-4580, barrowsthewindowshoppe.com

Organic Outline

The unique shape of the freestanding Cabrits tub from Victoria & Albert, now at Close to Home, is meant to mimic the contours of the human body. The tub is made from volcanic limestone and resin to ensure durability and heat retention. South Burlington, Vt., (802) 861-3200, closetohomevt.com

All Modern

Looking for an original alternative to the granite countertops that have been de rigueur in kitchen design for the last decade? Try Twenty Cemento by Modulnova, a line of cement resin counters and cabinet fronts now at Studio Verticale. Boston, (617) 751-0829, studioverticale.com
—Kaitlin Madden

